A MODEL BUILT ON faith

Taking the lead to transform communities by offering a series of capacity building workshops for faith and community leaders.

Faith-based organizations and their non-profit collaborating partners continue to face some of the most challenging economic times in our history. We believe the sustainability and impact of these organizations greatly depends on their access to high quality, tailored capacity building programs. Our “A Model Built on Faith & Community” training series includes, one-on-one technical assistance and workshop presentations from capacity building experts in the areas of fund development, strategic planning, non-profit law, proposal writing and more. All program offerings are FREE and designed to provide participants with a full spectrum of essential skill building techniques.
