Sean Chow is one of the Associates for 1001 New Worshiping Communities with his region being the Western United States. He resources and consults with mid-councils, churches, and New Worshiping Communities as they launch new creative expressions of church. His particular staff focus is on the 1001 NWC Training program. This includes cohorts, National Gatherings, Regional Gatherings, Facebook Live Conversations, and Webinars.

Sean is a graduate of Azusa Pacific University (2005) and San Francisco Theological Seminary- Southern California (2009). His desire is to be a part of a God driven movement that impacts the world for kingdom's glory. Over the years he has been a part of developing new ministries through and with existing congregations. Part of his aim is to prepare, equip, and sustain leaders to do the work in which God calls them.

Recently, Sean and his family have relocated to Southern California. He has a wife, four children and a puppy that keep him busy when he is not traveling.
