

Spring
Preaching Pastors Retreat

Apr 30-May 2

Solidarity from the Pulpit

Designed as a chance for pastors to improve upon their preaching style and technique, this retreat covers a number of topics including: contextual preaching, theology of preaching, homiletic theory, and biblical study and interpretation. This spring we will be focusing on Solidarity from the Pulpit led by our Keynote Speaker: Tripp Hudgins.

Keynote Speaker: Tripp Hudgins

is a husband and father who lives in Berkeley, CA. He serves as the Bogard Teaching Fellow at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific as an instructor in Homiletics and Liturgy. His dissertation work is on Liturgy and Ethnomusicology, specifically how the public performance of a concert becomes the work of, for, and by the people, we call Liturgy. As a preaching pastor and musician, he has served in the local parish, in ecumenical settings, as well as events such as The Wild Goose Festival. When not busy doing one of these things, he can be found in the family kitchen making biscuits for his young son. His wife is tired of eating biscuits.

Solidarity from the Pulpit

What is the Word of God to the people of God in such a times as ours? Driven by algorithms and the endless news cycle, it seems as if our society is fragmenting in every possible way. How might the contemporary church model solidarity as an alternative to fracture? This preaching conference will focus on how one preaches during times of social conflict, specifically our present American conflict. Come prepared to work with one another and, likely, have uncomfortable conversations.

Although the conference is rooted in Presbyterian (USA) theology and pedagogy, the program is open to qualified pastors from any Christian faith tradition.
