

Announcing the 2019 -2020 Commissioned Lay Pastor Course Offering

We're excited to offer this foundational curriculum for the preparation of our next class of Commissioned Lay Pastors (CLPs), AKA Commissioned Ruling Elders (CREs) for Particular Pastoral Service. These classes are open to and recommended for any and all church leaders for personal growth and development.

What's new with the Commissioned Lay Pastor (CLP) program?

Sixteen classes are being offered among four major areas of study. CLP candidates will be required to complete requirements for 12 of 16 course offerings and 3 within each major area of emphasis. Advantages include:

- ✓ Increased choices of classes for each candidate's calling to a particular pastoral service
- ✓ Opportunity to take time off during the course to catch up on fulfilling class requirements or meeting personal needs
- ✓ More offerings for already-commissioned CLPs to fulfill continuing education requirements.

Questions and Answers for the 2019 -2020 Commissioned Lay Pastor Course

Who is eligible to attend? Any church leader interested in furthering his or her understanding of the Christian faith may attend any and all classes by pre-registration as long as space allows. Only ordained elders in the Presbyterian Church may apply for consideration as Commissioned Lay Pastor (CLP).

What is the cost of each class and what are the requirements? For leaders auditing the course, the cost is $40/class and there are no class requirements, though there will be highly recommended readings before each class. For CLPs, the cost is $100/class and there will be pre- and post-reading and writing assignments. CLPs are required to attend and complete all assignments for at least 12 of the 16 classes offered between January, 2019 and April, 2020.

When are classes offered? Each class is offered the second weekend of each month, typically from 7PM-10PM on Friday evenings and 8:30AM-3:30PM on Saturdays unless otherwise stated.

Where are the classes held? Classes will be held at the Presbytery of San Francisco Education Center at 545 Ashbury Ave, El Cerrito and at other locations in the Bay Area as determined by the needs of the class members. Class attendees will have the option of digitally attending on Friday evenings via Zoom.

Where do I get more information? Registration, updated class schedule, application forms, instructor bios, and more can be found at sfeducationcenter.blogspot.com. Contact Phil or Karl for more information.
