REVEREND BEN DANIEL

M.Div., Princeton Theological Seminary

Ben has 27 years of ministry experience in the Presbyterian Church USA. He is currently the Senior Pastor and Head of Staff to the Montclair Presbyterian Church in Oakland, CA. Having developed from a conservative theological upbringing to a more progressive theological perspective, Ben is both well-grounded in the reformed Christian tradition and a consummate questioner. He blogs for The Huffington Post, has written for UPI's Religion and Spirituality Forum, and has been a regular contributor to KQED FM's Perspectives program.

The text for this class "The Search for Truth About Islam: A Christian Pastor Separates Fact from Fiction", written by Reverend Daniel, is available as an e-book through Amazon and other retailers. We'll focus on the "Basics" sections and chapters 5, 6, 7 and 10.
