Steps Paper and Forms
for becoming a CRE/CP

January 2023
A Helpful Time-line for the process of becoming a Commissioned Ruling Elder to Particular Pastoral Service
(known as Commissioned Pastor or CP in The Book of Order)

Presbyterians are known for doing things “Decently and in Order” and doing much of their work in committees. This does support a democratic and fair procedure but can make our processes sometimes feel long and arduous. We have prepared this CRE/CP time-line to help those wanting to navigate the process better by understanding important deadlines and anticipate how long each step in the process may take.

Following are estimated times required for each of the steps in the process.

☐ As you begin the process, you will have to work with your Pastor and Session to have forms CP Application Forms 1A, 1B & 1C filled out. Since most Sessions only meet once a month, you will need to work with the Pastor to get on the Session docket. Plan on this taking about 2 months.

☐ After the meeting with the Pastor and Session, you should follow up with them to make sure they have turned in the forms to the CRE/CP Working Group, which reports to the Committee on Ministry. Though you may start taking the CRE/CP classes before the forms are complete, they should be turned in as early as possible. You could also take a couple of classes to see if this work is for you before you begin the CRE/CP commissioning process. If you decide that you want to become a CRE/CP in the future you will need to complete all assignments for each class and pay the appropriate class fees.

☐ After you submit your application forms (Forms CP-1A, B & C) to the CRE/CP Working Group, they will assign you a liaison. The liaison will work with you and your congregation during this process. You should be contacted by your liaison shortly after that person is assigned.

☐ You will need to take a minimum of 12 of the ~16 CRE/CP classes offered (not including the introductory session) to be commissioned. The introductory class, taught by the CRE/CP Coordinator, will be offered on an individual basis when needed. You will need to attend this introduction to the program early on in your process. At the introductory class you will be reviewing all the forms and begin to work on the covenants with your congregation and pastor.

☐ Also at the start of your program you will need to work with your liaison and supervisor to begin to envision the details of what special ministry(s) you are being set aside for and to determine your plan of study (Planning Forms CP-2A and 2B). In most cases this will mean taking a minimum of 12 CRE/CP classes but alternatives are possible for: classes already taken, classes taken in other languages, approved classes in other programs, etc.

☐ When you have finished all your required class work, you will work with your liaison to schedule a time for examination by the CRE/CP Working Group. One month before this meeting you will need to send in your Commissioning Forms: Brief Statement of Faith, Biographical History, Commissioning Approval Forms CP-3A, 3B, and 3C), along with Continuing Development Form 4A.

Because the CRE/CP Working Group is a working group of the Committee on Ministry, all their actions must be approved by COM (which meets once a month) and their actions must be presented to the Presbytery at a regular meeting or presbytery (which meets quarterly). Because of when these groups meet and the lead time to get on dockets, it takes at least 3 months (longer during summer and holidays) to complete the process of approving you as CRE/CP after your examination. You need to consider this when planning the Presbytery service of worship when you will be commissioned.
You need to attend the Presbytery meeting where you will be approved as a CRE/CP. The action to become a CRE/CP will be part of the COM report so you will most likely not be examined by the Presbytery but you will be introduced to the Presbytery, either by video or in person.

If you add up all the times outlined here you can see that the CRE/CP commissioning process from start to finish can take 18 months and longer depending on when you start the program and how much time you can give to the work involved. Though this might seem long it is really a very good season to discern your call and work with others in helping you shape your call to CRE/CP ministry as you prepare for this important work.

Guidance for your brief statement of faith

As you prepare for your examination to be commissioned as a CP/CRE you will need to present a short Statement of Faith. Your Statement should no more than one page long and include the list of topics below. This list is not comprehensive but it is helpful to include them. We encourage you to be creative and let “you” shine through. We want your statement to be personal, to clearly be your own, not to be trite or a “cookie cutter” SOF. That being said, below are a list of topics you should include.

Your examination team will help you look at your statement of faith and make suggestions where needed. Your one-page Statement of Faith and your one-page biography (a separate document) will be included with the documents that go to the Committee on Ministry and in the Presbytery Docket when your commissioning is approved.

Here are some topics that you should include.

- The Trinity
- God
- Jesus Christ
- The Holy Spirit
- The Bible
- The Church, it’s nature and mission
- Sin/brokenness
- Forgiveness
- Salvation
- The Sacraments
- Eschatology – that part of theology concerned with death, judgement, and the final destiny of the soul and humankind.

These topics can be woven into others and don’t have to be fully examined. Lean on us as needed with developing your brief statement of faith.
